Ingenero Named Finalist in 4th Annual International Business Awards<sup>SM</sup>

Houston – July 31, 2007 – Ingenero, a high-end engineering and applied technology company providing technical resources and services for prominent engineering and processing clients, was recently named a Finalist in Best Overall Company in Asia (Subcontinent, Australia and New Zealand) in The 2007 International Business Awards. The International Business Awards are the only global, all-encompassing business awards program honoring great performances in business.

Houston-based Ingenero enables clients worldwide to quickly and cost-effectively expand their technical human resource base by globally leveraging the best available engineering and scientific graduates from top universities in its offering of both remote and onsite technical teams who offer complete operating solutions, which routinely results in maximizing client profits.

“Ingenero combines leading edge technology with a best practices approach and highly-qualified engineers,” said Jim Brigman, Executive Vice President, Ingenero.

Nicknamed the Stevie® for the Greek word “crowned,” the awards will be presented to winners at a gala dinner on Monday, September 10 in the Munich Marriott Hotel in Munich, Germany.

Recipients of the International Stevie Award trophies were selected from nominations received from companies and individuals in more than 30 countries. Twenty-five nations have at least one International Stevie winner each, including Australia, Belgium, Canada, China, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, France, Germany, India, Indonesia, Italy, Luxembourg, Singapore, South Africa, South Korea, Spain, Switzerland, Syria, Thailand, The Netherlands, Trinidad & Tobago, Turkey, the U.S.A., and United Kingdom.

Michael Gallagher, president of The Stevie Awards said: “Entries to the IBAs grew 40% this year and that illustrates the increasing importance of The International Business Awards worldwide.”

About The Stevie Awards

Hailed as “the business world’s own Oscars” by the New York Post (April 27, 2005), Stevie Awards are conferred in four programs: The American Business Awards, The International Business Awards, The Stevie Awards for Women in Business, and the Selling Power Sales Excellence Awards. Honoring companies of all types and sizes and the people behind them, the Stevies recognize outstanding performances in the workplace worldwide.
